previous order by appointing him as Hackney Carriage Inspector & Market Sergeant. It is now too late for the President to say that Vasudeva is not a permanent employ. Whether rightly or wrongly, Vasudeva was made by the former President to believe that he had a claim on the Municipality. As he has now put in nearly 6 years service, he cannot fairly be asked to go home, especially when there are 2 vacancies (Hackney Carriage Inspector & Market Sergeant) which were once ordered to be conferred on him.

Whether his services in the Plague Department as Police Inspector are retained or not (Please see the reference in the linked file), he may at once be provided with the Hackney Carriage Inspector's place which is vacant, & to which he is well qualified, being a graduate & a good lawyer, difference between his present pay viz 40+15 & that of the Hackney Carriage Inspector (Rs 20 + 15) by the grant of some allowance ~~as stated~~ from savings in the Municipal Budget (not as an additional charge) or from plague funds & entrusting Varadachar with the duties of both Hackney Carriage Inspector and Plague Police Inspector. Such an arrangement would be advantageous both to Govt (Plague) be no necessity of employing a separate man as Plague Police Inspector or at least retaining the present incumbent in the office, as suggested by the Senior Surgeon (Vide linked file) if Varadachar is appointed as Hackney Carriage Inspector & given an allowance of Rs 20/- for Plague duties. Submitted

Sir,

With reference to Government Proceedings No. 1027-8/L.F.226-96 dated the 5th August 1904, I have the honor to report that on close study of papers connected with Varada Char, Plague Police Inspector, I find that he is not a permanent employee and therefore he cannot be appointed as Hackney Carriage Inspector as per Government Order of November 1903. He has therefore been served with one months' notice since his services are no longer required in the Plague Department as ordered in the same Proceedings.

2. Varada Char was first appointed on probation as Assistant Sanitary Inspector when he was 46½ years of age. He was afterwards appointed as a temporary Plague Police Inspector. In both of these appointments he was not confirmed.
